Harry VANKEUREN

VANKEUREN, Harry - (Robert) Harry VanKeuren, retired, long-time employee (37 years) of the Stratford Festival passed away on January 3, 2011 at the Stratford General Hospital. He was 67. Harry was a committed enthusiast of live theatre and worked with a passion to help make productions come to life for Stratford audiences. He began work in the property department at the Festival soon after graduation from the Ontario College of Art and moved to the stage crew at the Avon Theatre where he would be poised in the wings, helping to create the magic of live theatre. Harry is survived by mother, Helen Ingram of Brantford; brothers, William (Deanna) of Hanover; Morrison of Brantford; sister, Susan of Perth Road and half-brother, Nicholas Ingram of Brantford. He is also survived by nieces, Sunny Gervan and Danielle VanKeuren. He was predeceased by stepfather, Nicholas Ingram and father, William VanKeuren. No visitation is scheduled. Cremation arrangements have been entrusted to the W. G. Young Funeral Home, Stratford. Memorial donations may be made to the Stratford Shakespeare Festival
