

KORDICS, Alexander

Mr. Alexander Kordics of Delhi, passed away suddenly at his home on Friday, December 15, 2017 in his 65th year. Alex was a member of IATSE (International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, Moving Picture Technicians, Artists and Allied Crafts) and loved working in the theatre, both as a volunteer as well as professionally. He toured internationally with Broadway's Forever Tango and created lighting designs for several performing companies. Alex also enjoyed reading, movies, gardening, cooking, golf and curling. Beloved son of Alex and Late Lise (Saronoff) Kordics (2016). Loving husband of Cheryl Ewing. Cherished stepfather of Jessica Croezen and Lisa Croezen-Kauk (Shawn) and grandfather of Jackson, Owen and Brynn. Dearest brother of Gabriel Kordics (Kathy) and uncle of Tony (Lindsay), Crystal and Laura. Also survived by aunts, uncles, cousins and in-laws.

Friends may call at the MURPHY FUNERAL HOME, Delhi (519) 582-1290 for visitation on Saturday, January 20, 2018 from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. followed by a Celebration of Life Memorial Service to be held in the Chapel at 2:00 p.m. Memorial Donations to JM Drama (Kitchener), Canadian Cancer Society or the Holmes House (Simcoe) will be gratefully appreciated by the family.
